

Dear Sir or Madam,

It is my pleasure to recommend Mr.YANG Naihua as a very promising candidate for admission into your distinguished undergraduate program.

He was interned in information system department of SONY (China) company from Jan 2015 to Apr 2015, he is capable of what we requested him to do .During his internship, he joined the program proactively, performed skilled professional programming knowledge and raised a lot of innovative ideas. I believe he has a big potential in the IT area and his development will exceed my expectation in the future. Even he is much younger than the other formal colleagues in the company, his personality and the cooperative working attitude are more likely an experienced formal employee .Thus I would like to give him a big praise.

When I came to know that he decided to continue his further studying in France, I am pretty sure he has had sufficient prerequisite knowledge for the subject and certainly has the ability to undertake the study.

Thus I recommend Mr YANG without reservation and shall appreciate your favorable consideration of his application.

Best wishes

Yours Sincerely
